Miracles of Mercy

Acts 3:1-10

- I. Who does Jesus invite into kingdom?
  - II. How does he extend his invitation?
  - III. What tells you someone's accepted it?
  - IV. How do you get in on this?
1. How comfortable are you with seeing parallels between the lame man and yourself as he sat at the Beautiful Gate?
    - a. Which parallels—if any—do you resonate with most?
  2. How does seeing the sign that Jesus does for the lame man help you see better into Christ's heart for you?
  3. How has Christ's work in you produced results that are similar to what you see coming out of the man who is healed?
    - a. Are there some results that are more obvious than others?
    - b. Which ones would you like to see more of?
  4. Can you share a recent time when the reigning Christ extended his invitation to someone else through you, to be restored by him?
    - a. Were there any similarities with how the Spirit worked through you like he worked through Peter?
  5. Where do you sense the Spirit moving you to expect to receive something from him?
    - a. What difference would that something make to your life?
    - b. Is that something you'd really like to have from him? Why or why not?
    - c. If it is, find someone to pray over this with you this next week, asking God to increase your desire for what he has for you.
